Wind has a annoying way of catching up with you

I went to the beach the other day and there in the water was a skate and although skates live in the water it didn't seem quite right. Soon I left the beach, not because of the skate, it was late in the day and the warm wind was wearing me out.
I later concluded that water's funny but air is exhausting.

people come and they leave women rarely wonder and they love that they go crazy in the streets they leave

if you get to the dolmen first if you get to the dolmen first and put a sun dial on top so that when I get there, you can rub it in my face.
